

Say Stay

Remain forever, day by day to the increase of Lover's OD, say stay. Goodbye, my dear down deep past, over the hill -over you, a new time, say stay. Sunshine over the head as my body heats up in passion, say stay. Flowers for the smell as candy for one's taste, the two would have us say stay. Date night can do no wrong, let's get out time and time again, then say stay. A house of joy we rent not, this home paid for by only love, better say stay. Two good souls feeling heaven's peace package, can say stay. No hell on this end, no hell by your side, as for that: say stay. Once in a lifetime could never produce two of you, and some still won't say stay. Yes, to a mess around cheating affair of only the two of us, as three can not say stay. Hand in hand, off we go to the better place, side by side as to say stay. Heartbeat to the drums of war, a good fight for love; be it another reason to say stay. The pure potion is the whole ingredient in sustaining relationships, now will we say stay? Rome was not built in a day, as for our love will not perish for centuries, we all need time to say stay. If GOD should take one and not the other, remember these words, my love, say stay!
