Student Learning Outcomes

Graduates receiving a Bachelor of Criminal Justice will demonstrate knowledge and understanding in the areas of law enforcement, courts, corrections, juvenile delinquency, law, constitutional law, research and ethics.

Assessment Methods & Criteria

Oral exit exams will be administered by Criminal Justice faculty to determine the graduates knowledge and understanding in the areas of law enforcement, courts, corrections, juvenile delinquency, law, constitutional law, research, and ethics.

A hard copy of the rubric for determining this information is on file in the Department office.

Criteria: 80% of students receiving a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice will demonstrate knowledge and understanding in the areas of law enforcement, courts, corrections, juvenile delinquency, law, constitutional law, research, and ethics.

Oral exit exams were administered by the Criminal Justice faculty.

The exams assessed students in the areas of corrections, juvenile delinquency, law enforcement, courts, law, constitutional law, research and ethics. The results for Fall 2011 and Spring 2012 are as follows:

- Fall 2011: nine graduates took the exam; each passed with 80% or above in all areas.
- Spring 2012: seven graduates took the exam; each passed with 80% or above in all areas.

Exams and results are housed in the CJUS faculty office.

Utilization of Evidence

A review of the results indicate that the faculty need to focus more on insuring an adequate understanding of the concept of probable cause.

Additional Details

- CJUS faculty will create an objective pre-test to be administered in CJUS 2131 Police Process, based on the content of the oral exit exam.

- The pre-test was developed by the CJUS faculty and administered in the CJUS 2131 course which is required for the BS/CJUS degree.

- Less than 50% passed the exam.

- The pre-test results will be used as a 'starting point' to indicate the students are learning in the CJUS program as they progress in their education.

- The students will be administered the oral exit exam in the year of their graduation.

- Exams and results are housed in the CJUS faculty office.
