

Winter Tree

By Hope

Do you feel the decay of your leaves The cold, dry, lifeless soil beneath you Do you hunger for rain

Do you cry for the blossoms of March April and may I ask?

do you simply stay

In this moment

Trusting all was woven

With intention

You must be itchin

To sprout a leaf or two ?

Or do you understand

you aren't meant to bear fruit

In this season

Do you trust the reasons

That You feel bare in winter Cause it's only fair

For..

in spring

You bring Life

You give breath

& With each blossom

You give death meaning Winter tree

Can you teach me?
