Greetings,

Last week, our campus hosted the Employee Recognition Dinner, the Louisiana Association of Women in Higher Education Conference, and the Conference of Louisiana Colleges and Universities.

I would like to recognize and thank some departments and individuals who went above and beyond to make all three events successful! I would like to thank Laura Fowler and Chancey Slider for organizing these events. Kudos to Melinda Anderson and the Foundation for their hard work and support! Thanks to Charlie Casrill and his team at Chartwells for providing high quality food and service. Appreciation goes to Dr. Rowan and Mona Wallace from Academic Affairs. Shout out to Facilities for all of their hard work, especially Jerry Burnaman and Donald Mills. Also thanks to James Mitchell, Debbie Gillam, Rade Pavic, and Alvaro Garcia for supporting Facility Services. Appreciation goes to Ray Edwards and Terry Byrd for providing sound support. Thanks to Sarah Black, Liz Jonson, and Anaice Hackett for their excellent work with marketing and communications! Kudos to Heather Gauthier and IET for providing technical support! Thanks to Lynette Burlew, June Guillory, Morgan Merrell, and Lauren Valois in the Human Resources Department. Kudos to Ethan Lipsey and his team of Ambassadors: Kylan Gillam, Ashlee Hatwig, Charlie Kendrick, Otis Jacobs, and Whitney Jacobs, Austin Rogers, Taylor Rogers, and Christopher Scroggs. Thanks to all faculty and staff members for supporting and attending these events. Words cannot express my sincerest gratitude and we could not have done it without you!

Thank you to the community members who provided support. Appreciation goes to Doug Young Flowers for providing the ferns. Thank you to Jim Clinton, President & CEO of CLEDA, who was the keynote speaker at CLCU and sponsored the soiree' held on the night of March 20, 2019.

Finally, congratulations to all faculty and staff recipients of awards recognized at the Employee Recognition Dinner!

Sincerely,
Guiyou Huang, PhD
