HONORING THE
CLASS OF 2021

---

MESSAGE FROM THE CHANCELLOR

All of us at Louisiana State University of Alexandria congratulate you for being one of our most resilient graduation classes in the history of our university. You've successfully reached an extremely important milestone that is the result of significant personal and family sacrifice, dedication, and hard work...so today we all celebrate your accomplishments. We are extremely excited and honored to be able to celebrate this Spring graduation face-to-face in our traditional venue at the Rapides Parish Coliseum.

We all know this has been a tumultuous year for all of us; however, today our focus is on you, our dedicated LSUA students who stuck it out and did not allow significant obstacles to get in the way of your dreams! All of us have been amazed and inspired by the special resilience you have all exhibited dealing with the disruptions resulting from COVID-19, a tornado on campus, and two major hurricanes that disrupted classes and campus life. You are indeed a very special graduating class that will forever be remembered for achieving your goals even when facing all of these obstacles.

We know that this is only the beginning of many accomplishments you will achieve throughout your lifetime. Our hope is that your experience at LSUA, and the degree you have earned, will enable you to reach your personal and career goals and at the same time help make the world a better place for us all!

To the parents, grandparents, loved ones, supporters, and friends of our graduates, please accept our congratulations and thanks. We realize that these accomplishments would not have been possible without your tireless support. Please know that your encouragement throughout the years had a significant impact on making this day possible.

We want to sincerely thank all of our students, families, and supporters who continue to believe in the high quality education provided by LSUA. We maintain a strong commitment to building a positive future for our students through outstanding faculty and staff, who remain dedicated to a quality university education. LSUA is committed to the long-term economic future of Central Louisiana, the State of Louisiana, the nation, and the world. In the years ahead, we pledge to continue to attract and educate a growing number of high-quality students like the outstanding graduates we celebrate here today.

We look forward to hearing about your successes in the future and hope to engage with you through LSUA's Alumni and Friends Association membership and related activities that support your university and its continuing mission. Please stay in touch and continue recommending your alma mater, LSUA, to potential students you meet and work with - we know alumni are our best recruiters!

Again, congratulations to all of our graduates and their families, and best wishes into the future.

Go Generals!

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

MRS. MELISSA LABORDE, APR LSUA Associate Professor of Communication Studies

Melissa LaBorde, APR, is a native of Lake Village, Arkansas who attended Montrose Academy finishing as valedictorian of her class. She attended Northeast Louisiana University on academic and spirit-group scholarships and was active on campus in a wide variety of organizations, particularly with the Public Relations Student Society of America and with the student orientation and student alumni organizations. She completed her Bachelor of Arts degree in Journalism/Public Relations and then served as a graduate assistant for the ULM Foundation and Alumni Association while completing her graduate degree in Communication with Public Relations emphasis.

A former Vice President of Agriculture, Communication and Economic Development for the Monroe Chamber of Commerce, LaBorde has been a public relations practitioner for over 30 years. The LaBordes moved to central Louisiana in 1991 and she served as Associate Director of Public Relations at Louisiana College before finding her home at LSUA. She was originally hired in August of 1992 as Director of Information Services and Executive Assistant to the Chancellor, but was moved to the Director of Institutional Advancement/Executive Director of the LSUA Foundation position later that year. Her work with the LSUA Foundation began with the LSUA Endowment Challenge which included the university's first ever $1 million matching gift. She secured funding for the LSUA Children's Center as well as the university's first endowed chair, 16 endowed professorships, and numerous student scholarships. The LSUA Alumni and Friends Association was established during her tenure, and she led the communication strategy for the LSUA 4-year effort. She has been a member of the LSUA 40th, 50th, and 60th Anniversary committees. In 2008, she moved from her administrative role into a full-time faculty position teaching public relations and mass communication courses in the Communication Studies program. She is an associate professor of communication studies and currently serves as President of the Faculty Senate as well as a member of numerous campus committees.

LaBorde is an accredited public relations practitioner who served two terms on the Universal Accreditation Board (UAB) which oversees accreditation activities for the public relations profession in the United States and Puerto Rico. Her work on the Research, Exam and Preparation, and Marketing Communication workgroups of the UAB has helped shape public relations professional accreditation and education across the US. She served as a two-time president of the Southern Public Relations Federation (SPRF) and was the first to be honored with both the Professional Achievement Award and the Educator of the Year Award. Her students have been on the winning teams for the SPRF student competitions in 2018 and 2019, and both she and her students have received recognition in the Lantern Awards and Cypress Awards competitions.

An active member of the community, LaBorde has served on the board of directors of the Red Cross, the Renaissance Home for Youth, the Public Relations Association of Louisiana, and the Arts Council of Central Louisiana. She supports numerous nonprofit organizations and is active at Our Lady of Prompt Succor Church in numerous ministries. She continues to volunteer with Holy Savior Menard Central High School, Manna House and Buddy Camp.

THE ACADEMIC REGALIA CODE

Guidelines with respect to academic regalia derive from traditions passed on since the Middle Ages. American universities agreed on a definite system in 1895 and devised an official Code of Academic Dress. In 1932, the American Council on Education presented a revised code which for the most part governs the style of academic dress today.

Black is the recommended color for all academic gowns. Bachelor's and master's gowns are untrimmed. Doctor's gowns are faced with black velvet or the other color associated with the degree with three chevrons across the sleeves. The Chancellor's gown is faced with four chevrons across the sleeves.

The hoods differ in length for the three degrees, bachelor's, master's, and doctor's and are lined with the official colors of the college or university conferring the degree, usually with one color forming a chevron pattern over the other. Hoods are edged and bound with velvet of the color appropriate for the degree and lined with the official colors of the college or university conferring the degree.

THE COLORS ASSOCIATED WITH THE DIFFERENT SUBJECTS ARE AS FOLLOWS:

Apricot	Nursing	Maize	Agriculture
Brown	Fine Arts, Architecture	Olive Green	Pharmacy
Citron	Social Work	Orange	Engineering
Copper	Economics	Peacock Blue	Public Administration
Crimson	Journalism	Pink	Music
Dark Blue	Philosophy	Purple	Law
Drab	Business	Russet	Forestry
Gray	Veterinary Medicine	Sage	Physical Education
Green	Medicine	Salmon Pink	Public Health
Golden Yellow	Science	Scarlet	Theology
Lemon Yellow	Library Science	Silver Gray	Speech
Light Blue	Education	White	Art, Letters, Humanities
Lilac	Dentistry

DEGREE WITH HONORS

At each commencement, the University Medal for “Highest Academic Achievement” is awarded to the graduate receiving an associate degree and to the graduate receiving a baccalaureate degree with the highest GPA, provided that more than 50 percent of the total hours attempted in pursuit of the degree have been earned at Louisiana State University of Alexandria.

Graduates receiving baccalaureate degrees may receive their degrees summa cum laude, magna cum laude, or cum laude. The determination for these designations is based on the student’s grade point average. Degrees are awarded summa cum laude to students whose grade point averages are within the 3.90 to 4.0 range. In order for a degree to be awarded magna cum laude, the grade point average must be within the 3.70 to 3.89 range. Degrees are awarded cum laude to students whose grade point averages are between 3.50 and 3.69. Students who are awarded their degrees with honors must also have satisfied all additional requirements imposed by their college or department.

Students graduating with honors are recognized at commencement by wearing honors cords. Students graduating summa cum laude wear gold cords. Those graduating magna cum laude wear silver cords; cum laude graduates wear white cords.

GAMMA BETA PHI - HONOR GRADUATES

Gamma Beta Phi is a national collegiate honor and service organization. Students must have an overall 3.0 grade point average to be invited to become members. The gold satin stole worn by graduates signifies that they are members in good standing.

THE MACE

A mace is the traditional university symbol of educational authority and institutional identity and is presented at formal university rituals and traditions, such as commencement ceremonies. The LSUA mace is forty-eight inches tall and weighs approximately ten pounds. It is crafted of wood from a fallen live oak tree native to the Louisiana State University of Alexandria campus and solid brass. The brass spacers that collectively form the shaft are engraved with milestone dates in the history of the university. The mace is topped with a four-sided acorn, calling attention to the fiftieth anniversary in 2010, the service of Louisiana State University of Alexandria to Louisiana and Central Louisiana in particular, desirable attributes imparted in graduates of Louisiana State University of Alexandria and embossed figures depicting “One World – Diverse – Intertwined.” The acorn is crowned with the official LSUA oak tree seal with the historical blue and gold banner insignia. Alexandria resident and master craftsman Glen Armand crafted and donated the mace in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of Louisiana State University of Alexandria. The LSUA mace was first presented to the faculty, staff and students at the closing commencement exercises of the fiftieth anniversary, December 16, 2010.

CONGRATULATIONS

to all of our Spring 2021 Graduates!

*The appearance of a name in this program is presumptive evidence of graduation, but it is not to be regarded as conclusive. The names of some students who are graduating are not listed in this program due to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974. This program contains the names of candidates for degrees at the time of the printing deadline.

ALMA MATER

*The path life enduring lies with stately grace,
Under oaks and pines securing, our home LSUA*

*To thee our source of wisdom our hope and future shine,
To thee, our Alma Mater we'll be forever thine.*

*As we journey onward, the knowledge we obtain
And the lessons here imparted eternally remain.*

*To thee our source of wisdom our hope and future shine,
To thee, our Alma Mater we'll be forever thine.*

Josh Blakesley 2009
