Welcome from Chancellor

Thank you so very much for becoming a part of Louisiana State University at Alexandria (LSUA). LSUA has an exceptional history dating back more than 50 years of providing access to high quality educational opportunity, in a challenging and supportive environment, at a reasonable price; thereby, providing an excellent educational value for its students. A wide array of financial assistance is offered to students through LSUA including federal loans, grants, and work-study opportunities. Additionally, a substantial amount of scholarship support (academic, performance, merit, and need based), is provided by LSUA and the LSUA Foundation. This support creates ladders of opportunity, helps students persist through graduation, and enables students to keep debt burdens associated with attending and graduating from LSUA to an absolute minimum.

Faculty members at LSUA are experts in their respective academic fields or areas; are engaged actively in teaching, research and creative expression, and service; and are committed to helping students survive, thrive, achieve, and graduate from LSUA. This enables students, upon graduation, to be exceedingly well prepared to enter the workforce or advance to graduate or professional schools. Staff members and administrators at LSUA are first-rate and dedicated to their supporting roles in the efficient and effective operation and administration of the University.

LSUA is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award associate and baccalaureate degrees. All academic courses and programs offered by LSUA are developed, approved, and delivered by LSUA faculty and approved by the LSUA Board or Supervisors and the Louisiana Board of Regents. As a consequence, an academic degree from LSUA provides an excellent foundation for and entrée to advanced academic courses, programs, and degrees at other institutions of higher education (both public and private).

Students at LSUA have the opportunity to enjoy the full college experience (both within and outside of the classroom) on a beautiful campus anchored by magnificent live oaks; while at the same time benefitting by attending small classes (with and overall student to faculty ratio of 15 students to 1 faculty member). This allows students to become part of the campus family and known on campus by their name and personally rather than being lost in a large student body and experiencing a depersonalized educational experience. As a consequence of having its own properly staffed and well trained police force and an excellent crime prevention program, LSUA is one the safest and most secure campuses in the United States. A more comprehensive list of distinctive characteristics or points of pride is available at: www.lsua.edu/about/PointsOfPride.

In order to provide a level of excellence not otherwise possible by funds provided by the State of Louisiana (through legislative appropriates and other means) and through tuition and fees paid by students and their families and other supporters, LSUA, the LSUA Foundation, and the LSUA Alumni Association actively seek philanthropic contributions and corporate support. This includes gifted funds to support endowments (which create perpetual sources of funds through investment of the gift and creation of earnings) and immediate use funds. Philanthropic contributions and corporate support may be used for a wide array of purposes including, but not limited to, scholarships, educational travel, and development funds for students; professorships, endowed chairs, and travel and development funds, for faculty; equipment for instruction and research, library acquisition funds, “bricks and mortar” projects such as new academic facilities; and for other good, appropriate, and necessary purposes. Accordingly, LSUA actively seeks additional philanthropic and corporate support.

Additional information about LSUA is readily accessible through the LSUA website at http://www.lsua.edu/ Please feel encouraged to share with me your ideas for improving LSUA by communicating with me by email chancellor@lsua.edu or by phone (318) 473-6444. Once again, thank you so very much for deciding to be a student at Louisiana State University Alexandria.

Warmest regards,
G. Daniel Howard, Ph.D., CGFM, CFRE
Chancellor
Welcome from Student Government President

Your LSU of Alexandria Student Government Association (SGA) is dedicated to the preservation of and advocacy for student rights, interests, and progress because of its relationship with the administration, and the campus community.

Our offices are in the Student Center, right by the entrance across from the bookstore. Please stop by to chat, or discuss any questions or concerns about LSUA. We are here to serve our fellow students! If you need funding for an event, consider the guidelines highlighted on the SGA page.

Our meetings are held in the Sentry Room, usually at noon every Tuesday. Anyone may attend a meeting; bring your lunch and join us. To speak with me, or one of my officers, call the SGA office, 318-473-6452. Remember, research suggests students involved in student organizations and campus activities have better G.P.A.s, graduate sooner, and have richer college experiences. Your student government is waiting for YOU!

Sincerely,
Brandon Crain

HISTORY

The Louisiana legislature authorized the establishment of LSUA as a two-year commuter college under the governance of the LSU Board of Supervisors in 1959, and the campus registered its first students in September 1960. The Division of Nursing initiated the first degree program, an Associate of Science in Nursing degree, in 1964. The Board of Supervisors, the Louisiana Board of Regents, and the legislature authorized LSUA to offer bachelor’s degrees in 2001, and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges approved the substantive change in 2002. LSUA began offering baccalaureate degrees in Fall 2003.

LSUA is a component of the Louisiana State University System which also includes Louisiana State University and Agricultural and Mechanical College, LSU Paul M. Hebert Law Center, LSU Agricultural Center, LSU Pennington Biomedical Research Center, LSU Shreveport, LSU Eunice, LSU Health Sciences Center New Orleans, LSU Health Sciences Center Shreveport, and LSU Health Care Services Division.

MISSION STATEMENT

As the only state-supported undergraduate university in Louisiana, LSUA’s mission is to provide a broad spectrum of affordable undergraduate degrees in a robust academic environment that challenges students to excel and creates proactive and reciprocal relationships that meet the needs of the diverse student body and community that it serves.

VISION STATEMENT

LSUA envisions itself as a University of choice, recognized for academic excellence, committed to student and community growth through teaching, research, and service, and, esteemed as a contributor to the economic, cultural, and intellectual growth of Louisiana.
IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR STUDENTS
SEMESTER HOUR SYSTEM
The value of each course of instruction and the amount of work required for graduation are measured in semester hours. A semester hour of credit represents an hour of class work, or two to four hours of laboratory work per week for the semester.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY
Each student is personally responsible for completing all requirements established for his or her degree by the University and department. It is the student’s responsibility to learn and meet degree requirements. A student’s advisor may not assume these responsibilities. Any substitution, waiver, or exemption from any established requirement or academic standard may be accomplished only with the approval of the provost and Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs.

It is important that you obtain a copy of the LSUA Catalog in effect the first semester you enroll in the University. That edition becomes your catalog of record until you graduate unless you change your major or interrupt your studies by not enrolling for a semester or more. Make sure that you learn all requirements for your degree and keep a record of your progress toward earning that degree.

Educational Assessment/Graduate Exit Examinations
Candidates for degrees are required to complete an exit examination, as stipulated by the Academic Affairs office. The academic department from which the candidate is graduating may require additional exit assessments.

Reading a Course Description
All courses offered at LSUA are listed in the LSUA Catalog. The diagram below will help you understand course descriptions.

Family Educational Rights & Privacy Act (FERPA)

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their educational records. These rights are presented here:

1. The right to inspect and review the student’s education records within 45 days of the day the university receives a request for access. Students should submit to the Registrar an official, written request that identifies the record(s) they wish to inspect. The Registrar will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected.

2. The right to request the amendment of the student’s education records when the student believes they are inaccurate or misleading. Students may ask the university to amend a record that they believe is inaccurate or misleading. In such cases, students should write to the university official responsible for the record, clearly identify the part of the record they want changed, and specify why it is inaccurate or misleading. If the university decides not to amend the record as requested by the student, it will notify the student of the decision and advise the student of his or her right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided when the student is notified of the right to a hearing.
3. The right to consent to disclosures of personally identifiable information contained in the student’s education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent. One exception that permits disclosure without consent is disclosure to school officials with legitimate educational interests. A school official is a person employed by the university in an administrative, supervisory, academic, research, or support staff position (such staff include law enforcement and health personnel); a person or company with whom the university has contracted (such as an attorney, auditor, or collection agent); a person serving on the university’s governing boards, or a student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee, or assisting another school official in performing his or her tasks. A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an educational record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibility.

The university will not disclose educational records without written consent when requested by officials of another school in which a student seeks or intends to enroll.

Directory information concerning the student may be released by the university unless the student has requested that such information not be released. Under the terms of FERPA, directory information includes the following items:

- Student Name
- Student ID Photograph
- Local Address/Phone
- Home/Address/Phone
- E-mail Address
- Date and Place of Birth
- Degrees and Awards/Honors Received and Dates
- Dates of Attendance (Current and Past)
- Full or Part-Time Enrollment Status
- Participation in Officially Recognized Activities
- Participation in Officially Recognized Sports
- Weight/Height of Members of Athletic Teams
- Most Recently Attended Educational Institute
- Major Field of Study/Classification

Students’ overall grade point averages may be released to honorary organizations only when they are to be used in determining eligibility for membership.

Students who wish to withhold directory information should complete the appropriate form in Records before the seventh class day of any term. Requests to prevent disclosure of directory information will remain in effect until a written request to rescind is received by the Registrar.

LSUA also maintains a global email-address list via Microsoft Outlook. Students who wish to add their physical addresses and their phone numbers to this directory can do so by logging on at www.my.LSUA.edu and then clicking on the Update User Info link.

Parents or guardians of students who are dependents for income tax purposes may review their dependents’ academic records. It is assumed that all undergraduates are independent of their parents. Each request to review a student’s academic records must be accompanied by appropriate documentation. Transcripts, however, cannot be released to a third party without the student’s signature, except in those circumstances indicated in the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act.
4. The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by Louisiana State University at Alexandria to comply with the requirements of FERPA.

The name and address of the office that administers FERPA is provided below:
Family Policy Compliance Office
U.S. Department of Education
400 Maryland Avenue, SW
Washington, DC 20202-5920

Use of University Facilities
LSUA's facilities and programs are generally reserved for accomplishing the objectives and programs of the university. Visitors and non-university affiliated groups may use campus facilities only under specific guidelines and only after obtaining appropriate authorization.

Academic and Administrative buildings are opened by Facility Services personnel. LSUA Police secure the buildings. Hours they are secured may vary from building to building, depending on use. Buildings and grounds of the campus are patrolled regularly by LSUA Police Officers. They can also report other problems such as safety hazards, defective lighting etc.

LSUA's general safety policies and procedures are reviewed and distributed regularly by the campus Safety Committee. This committee is comprised of eight members of the faculty and staff. The committee identifies safety hazards and makes recommendations to maintain a safe campus.

Smoking Policy
Smoking or the use of other tobacco products is prohibited on University grounds; LSUA owned or leased properties; and campus owned, leased, or rented vehicles beginning August 1, 2014.

This policy applies to all faculty, staff, students, clients, contractors, and visitors and is in effect before, during, and after campus business hours.

Signs are installed on campus in compliance with the law and LSUA policy.

LSUA is committed to supporting all students and employees who wish to stop smoking and using other tobacco products. There are numerous tobacco cessation services available both on and off campus. These include:

- www.quitwithusla.org - The Quit With Us, LA website provides tobacco users with important information and tips on quitting.
- 1-800-Quit-Now – The Louisiana Tobacco Quitline provides free confidential advice and support by trained tobacco cessation specialists to Louisiana residents 13 years of age and older.

POLICY REGARDING CHILDREN ON CAMPUS OR IN CLASSROOMS

Traditionally, LSUA has not banned children from classrooms because many of our students are parents and they will sometimes have difficulty with child care arrangements. It would be unfortunate for students to have to miss class because of child care problems.

However, whether or not children are allowed in a class is totally the prerogative of the individual instructor. Students must obtain the instructor's permission before bringing a child to class. Subject matter in a college course might be unsuitable for children, or the instructor may simply prefer not to have children in his/her classroom.

Children attending classes must be quiet and well-behaved. An instructor may ask the parent and child to leave if the child is being disruptive to the class. Under no circumstances should children be allowed in laboratory or activities classes where a child could be injured or could possibly break university equipment.

All children, whether in classrooms or elsewhere on campus, must be supervised by an adult. When unsupervised children are observed on campus, they should be reported to University Police, who will attempt to locate their parents.

CAMPUS PUBLICITY POLICY

Section I

The Campus Publicity Policy is designed to maintain order for the Campus Bulletin Boards and buildings. NO information, notices, or advertisements may be posted without prior permission from the Director of Student Support (LSUA Student Center 206).

Section II

No fliers, advertisements, coupons or other published materials may be placed on vehicles parked on LSUA property. In addition, no such materials may be posted in classrooms, except instructional materials placed by authorized college personnel. Groups wishing to advertise on campus may purchase ad space in the campus newspaper. Contact newspaper personnel at 318-473-6452.

Section III

Signs, posters, or fliers displayed by authorized students or campus groups must be removed within 48 hours after the event.

Section IV

SGA Elections Committee will establish guidelines determining the size and dimensions of signs. Copies of the guidelines will be available in the Student Government Association Office.

Section V

No signs, fliers or advertisements will be posted on painted surfaces, wooden structures or glass surfaces anywhere on campus. Any damages to these surfaces will be charged to the sponsoring group of the activity.

Section VI

No signs may be placed on the library or departmental buildings; however, signs may be placed on the bulletin boards. Signs must be cleared through the Director of Student Support.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR NEW STUDENTS

Admission to the University

It is the student’s responsibility to ensure that all required documentation is sent to LSUA in a timely manner. Provisional admission, pending receipt of complete and official academic records, may be granted when it is impossible to obtain these records prior to scheduled registration dates. This admission will be cancelled if the required records are not received by Admissions by the first day of classes or if it is determined, upon receipt of records that the applicant does not qualify for admission. For additional information concerning admissions, contact Admissions in Abrams Hall or call 318-473-6417.
Academic Advising
New students meet initially with advisors in the Advising Center who will assist you with making initial educational plans, inform you of available resources, and assist you in a successful transition to the university.

You will be assigned an academic advisor who will be a faculty member in the Academic Department of your major. This person will be your advisor of record with whom you will need to meet as soon as possible after your initial registration to discuss your educational plans. Contact your Academic Department or Self-Service to find the name of your advisor of record.

Times, Places, Levels and Types of Classes

Times: When you review the Schedule of Classes, you will notice that some classes are taught on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, some on Monday and Wednesday, some on Tuesday and Thursday, some at night, and others in a variety of online configurations.

Places: LSUA offers classes at locations other than campus. Check the Schedule of Classes carefully when selecting classes.

Off Campus Sites:
- LCRP – Learning Center for Rapides Parish (England Air Park)
- LSUAMA – LSUA Museum of Art (Downtown Alexandria)
- ALHC – Allied Health Center (807 Jackson – Downtown Alexandria)
- OFFCAM – Off campus site such as a school, hospital, etc.

Be sure to check your Schedule of Classes carefully so you will be able to reach the site of your classes on time.

Levels:

Course Numbering System:

0001 – 0009: Offered by LSUA to permit students to make up deficiencies in previous training or to improve their facility in certain basic skills. Students cannot use these courses to meet their degree requirements.

1000 – 1999: Primarily for freshman. Ordinarily open to all students.

2000 – 2999: For sophomore level or above. It is not advisable for a freshman to register for a sophomore-level course unless the student has a grade point average of at least 2.50 or a composite ACT score of at least 26, or has placed into the course through an advanced-standing examination.

3000 – 3999: Generally for students of junior level or above. Students below junior level should consult with their advisors before registering for one of these courses.

4000 – 4999: For advanced students of junior or senior level. Any student who has accumulated less than 60 hours must have the permission of the appropriate department chair before registering for one of these courses.

Types of Classes

Regular Full Term: These classes are taught in a traditional timeframe of 16 weeks for Fall and Spring semester or 8 weeks for Summer.

A-Term and B-Term: A-Term and B-Term classes are courses offered in a concentrated format each semester. These courses meet for longer periods of time and are referred to as “A-Term” (the first half of the semester) and “B-term” (the second half of the semester). Students may register for B-term classes until the beginning of the B-term. These courses are not recommended for first-time freshmen.

Pre-session

Pre-session classes are taught between semesters in an extremely compressed timeframe of 3 weeks. Make sure that you evaluate carefully your academic record, the course requirements, and your ability to devote a significant portion of your time to completing them before you decide to enroll in a Pre-session class. These classes are not recommended for first-time freshmen.
Distance Learning (E-Learning): Many courses use electronic methods to enhance the learning experience. Students enrolling in such courses must ensure that they have access to the necessary technology to be successful in these courses before registration. E-Learning courses are designated in the schedule by the last character of the course section number.

- X – Courses are face to face meetings with the instructor
- I – Courses that are 100% online; student does not have to come to campus at all
- J – Courses that are 76% - 99% online
- K – Courses that are 50% - 75% online
- L – Courses that are 25% – 49% online
- C – Courses that are delivered via compressed video

Time Management and Stress Management

If you work 40 hours or more a week, it is not realistic to register for 12 hours or more. You can go to class and you can go to work, but when you try to access that small window of time left in your day to study, you will find that you are too tired to focus on your classwork. Be realistic about selecting the number of hours for which you register. Do you have family obligations that will make study time and class attendance difficult? If you must be home by 2:30 when your child gets off the bus, make sure you don’t select classes that will not allow you to get home by that time. Think about your unique situation and be wise about scheduling classes. Remember you may need to spend time on campus to complete some of your assignments. Successful management of your schedule will contribute to you achieving your ultimate goal of earning a college degree.

Trial Schedule

Your trial schedule lists the courses you plan to take. Come prepared with your trial schedule when you meet with your advisor. Together, you and your advisor will decide which classes will best fit your curriculum so you can proceed toward graduation. Below are some factors you should consider as you make your trial schedule:

- Your academic successes
- ACT Scores
- Credit hours
- Full-time/part-time student
- Prerequisite courses
- General education courses
- Major and curricula
- Day/Time/Location of course
- Workload/course load/overload
- Financial aid
- CLEP courses (testing out)
- Family obligations
Selecting a Major
Some students may have selected their major; other students may be “undecided.” It is okay to be “undecided.” That is part of the college journey. Your advisor will help you navigate selecting your major, and if needed, changing majors. The Advising Center in Student Support can provide assistance in helping you choose a major.

Freshman Orientation
For all new and transfer students with fewer than 30 credit hours, Freshmen Orientation is the first step to becoming a successful college student! During a full day led by LSUA’s Student Ambassadors, students will gain vital information about campus programs, policies, procedures, and a special meeting with their respective academic department. Freshman Orientation is a fun an interactive introduction to LSUA and university life!

Center for Academic Success - Mulder Hall 130
LSUA is committed to student success. We want students to grow and prosper and become life-long learners who leave LSUA not only with a degree, but with a set of skills empowering them to succeed in any field they choose. The LSUA Experience was created to assist students as they transition from high school into college. It is designed to prepare them to be successful college students and to help them find a home here at LSUA. The cornerstone of The LSUA Experience is an elective course for first-year students (LSUA 1001-Seminar for Academic Success). This course is paired with upper level courses (LSUA 3001, 4001-Academic Leadership I, II) which allow accomplished students to hone their own skills by working as peer mentors with incoming students. These highly interactive courses are dedicated to providing the support, skills, and enjoyment inherent in a college experience. Join us!!

Honors Program
In the spirit of academic excellence, the LSUA Honors Program is designed to attract a broad range of academically talented students with the potential for academic excellence and leadership. It challenges them to pursue new heights. Honors classes introduce unique opportunities and differing perspectives that open the student’s mind to unveil its full potential. One goal of the honors program is to meet the challenge of all students who are motivated to achieve academically. Students who earn 18 hours of honors course work in their curriculum will be given a special medallion to wear at graduation. Members of our honors family will have access to faculty advice on graduate school applications, special speakers and lecturers, opportunities to publish research in undergraduate journals and present work at conferences, priority registration, guidance in competing for national scholarships, and service opportunities.

Placement and Advanced Standing
LSUA offers the opportunity to students with superior ability to demonstrate academic competence through examinations. Students may qualify for advanced standing credit through ACE (American Council on Education), ACT (American College Test), AP (The Advanced Placement Program of the College Board), CLEP (Subject Examinations of the College Level Examination Program), COMPASS (Computer-Adaptive College Placement Test), Credit Exams (Departmentally Administered LSUA Credit Exams), and Credit for Approved Specialized Certification or Training Programs. Please see the most recent LSUA Catalog sections on Placement and Advanced Standing for information on these opportunities.

REGISTERING FOR COURSES
To complete registration, select and register for courses online via www.my.lsua.edu

Adding Classes
1. You may begin adding courses through my.LSUA once registration begins. You may continue to add courses online until the date published in the Academic Calendar (online registration is generally turned off at the end of late registration of full term).
2. Once online registration is turned off, please consult with your academic department for options.
Dropping Classes

1. You may begin dropping courses through my.LSUA once registration begins. You may continue to drop courses online until the date published in the Academic Calendar (online registration is generally turned off at the end of late registration of full term.)

2. Once online registration is turned off, all drops are processed in the departmental office in compliance with deadlines published in the Academic Calendar.

3. You will fill out a ‘Schedule Change’ form with the department administrative assistant. Withdrawing from a course after the 14th class day results in a grade of "W'.

4. Your advisor will sign the form and give you a copy to keep until the end of the semester. Students are encouraged to keep copies of all official documents from the university.

5. The completed form is sent to Records office for data entry and finalization of drop request.

6. Resignations (dropping all of your courses) are initiated in the Advising Center, 318-767-2604.

7. Students may review the drop/resignation completion via their online unofficial transcript.

8. After the last day to withdraw from a course with a "W', a student who does not attend class and meet course obligations will likely receive a grade of "F” at the end of the semester.

9. Please consult the Academic Calendar on the website or published in the most current LSUA Catalog for dates concerning dropping or adding courses.

Fee Payment

Students can verify amount owed the University by checking their account online or by contacting Accounting Services at 318-473-6407.

For more information on ways to pay fees, please access: http://fas.lsua.edu/departments/Accounting/PaymentDates/

Registration is not complete until fees are paid!

Financial Aid and Scholarships — Abrams Hall

A limited number of honor awards and scholarships are granted to students with outstanding records. Additional assistance is provided for students who need financial help to meet college expenses. Such assistance is provided through loans, grants and part-time employment. Additional information concerning financial aid appears in the catalog and details may be obtained from Financial Aid and Scholarships in Abrams Hall or by visiting the financial aid link at the University's website http://sfa.lsua.edu/

It is never too late to apply! If you do not apply for financial aid early, your money will probably not be ready at the beginning of the semester. That means that you will have to find a way to pay your fees before classes begin. If you are eligible for a PELL Grant, when it comes in, you will receive any money above and beyond your tuition and fee expenses. It pays to apply early!

If you have not applied for a PELL Grant, go online to: www.fafsa.ed.gov and fill out the FAFSA form. You must supply all documents before aid can be dispersed. All records must be received by Admissions and Records and you must be officially admitted as a regular student before receiving your financial aid!

Before dropping courses, students are strongly encouraged to visit the Financial Aid Office to understand the impact of course load changes on financial aid or fees owed to the university.

Loans are also available to assist students in paying for college. Loans are not free money and must be paid back. Be very careful when applying for loans. You don't want to have a huge debt to repay when you graduate.
HOW TO MAKE "A's" AT A

1. Go to class. Attending class is essential to your learning. Faculty guide your study and learning through interaction in the classroom. If you are taking an online class, you must login and complete assignments on schedule.

2. Buy your textbooks. If a text is required for a class, and you don't buy one for weeks, you are already behind.

3. Keep your syllabus for each class in the notebook with your class notes. The syllabus guides your study, helps you know what chapters or concept(s) to read for what class, explains the grading system, lists test dates, has information concerning how to contact your professor (including office hours), and serves as your information source for any given class. Some professors put their syllabus on line. If that is true, print a copy to keep with you.

4. Always, always, always read the chapters or concepts you will be going over in class before the lecture. You will be better prepared to learn, and you will be surprised how much it facilitates your note taking.

5. Take good notes. Don't just highlight your book. Use the kinesthetic exercise of taking notes to your advantage. Listening intently enough to take down the main idea is a learning experience within itself. Use an outline form starting with the main idea, followed by supporting points. It is difficult to learn from notes if you take them as if you are writing a letter.

6. Begin learning the material presented in class before you go to the next class. As you have probably heard before, cramming for a test does not work. You cannot remember, understand, and learn all that material in a few days before the test. Put key facts on note cards and begin the learning process from class-to-class.

7. Read your notes every day from test period to test period. By the fourth day of class, you should be reading all note pages from all four classes, etc.

8. Learn mind mapping. This technique is the process of putting information together in a pictorial form. It is easy to learn and is a valuable tool to use in learning material. To learn more about this process, visit Student Services.

9. Form and/or join a study group. If you are taking a math class, a study group can really help with the homework. Get together as soon after class as possible and get homework done together. Each of you will understand and remember certain areas better than the other. Teaching each other is the highest form of learning material.

10. Use the free tutoring services provided through Student Services. Tutoring hours are posted on the door to the TLC Lab or inquire in the Student Services office, located within the Student Success Center.

11. Don't be a "CCC" "(car-to-class-to-car) student. Stay on campus and get your homework done where help is available. This is when you will have time to go by your professor's office and ask for clarification of a concept you didn't understand. Once home, the phone calls your name, the refrigerator calls your name, friends call your name; the TV calls your name, etc. It is hard to do your work at home. Stay here where you have access to resources. Get your homework done on campus and go home with "guilt free, free time."

12. If you make a grade below a 70 on your first exam, it may be time to visit an academic counselor in Student Services, an advising counselor in the Advising Center, your professor, or others who might help you assess your situation and help you get on track before the next test. Don't wait until you have two low test grades before you seek help. Remember, college courses may only have three to four tests, one of those being a final. Get help early.

HOW TO AVOID GETTING "F's"

If you are be unable to continue attending a class or just stop coming to the university, make sure that you see your advisor and drop the class(es). A "W" (withdrawal) is always better than an "F". Save your GPA. Keep in mind, however, that LSUA policy allows only one drop per class. If you drop a class and schedule to take it later, you must prove that you have extenuating circumstances before you can drop it again. Discuss dropping a class with your class instructor and with your advisor before you decide to complete a drop. Withdraw from a class through the right channels. If you have a PELL Grant, make sure you go by Financial Aid and Scholarships before dropping a course. Dropping all your classes constitutes withdrawal from the University (Resignation). This process begins in the Advising Center.
TIPS FOR SURVIVING YOUR FIRST SEMESTER

• Save all forms!
  o Bookstore receipts may be important for the return of a book.
  o Your copy of a Schedule Change form is important in proving that you dropped or added a class
  o Your copy of a Curriculum Change form is important in proving when you changed majors and will identify the catalog outlining degree requirements you will have to meet.

• Watch your credit.
  o Credit cards are often offered to college students. Don't get caught in this trap. Remember, you must make payments on credit cards and most of those small payments go toward interest. Best advice, don't get one.

• Watch your student loans.
  o Don't get loans that are not necessary to keep you in class. Those loans seem like a wonderful answer to your money problems now, but remember ......they add up fast, and as soon as you stop going to college, or graduate.....you must begin paying them back. Don't finish college with a huge debt.

• Visit your Academic Advisor. He or she is there to help.
• Get to know your professors and get help early on in your classes.
• Keep your class syllabus with your class notes. The syllabus tells you when assignments are due, when tests are scheduled, how grades are calculated, and how your professor can be contacted, and other important information.
• Keep a copy of:
  o Advising form from your meeting with your advisor
  o A current copy of your Degree Audit
  o Schedule Change forms (add/drop), Resignation form, and Curriculum Change forms o All your LSUA Catalogs. Always know which catalog under which you are pursuing your degree.
  o Academic Calendar - The Academic Calendar lists all the important deadlines and due dates.

• Always check with Financial Aid before add or withdrawing from a class. Changes to your schedule could affect your financial aid.
• If your book comes wrapped in shrink-wrap, do not open it until after the first day of class. The professor may not use the text. Once the shrink-wrap is removed, the book may not be accepted as a return.
• Get an OaKard (ID) and Parking Decal.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS GUIDELINES

LSUA has a variety of organizations that meet our students’ interests and needs. The Guidelines for Student Organizations are contained within Policy Statement 239, located on the LSUA website at: http://chancellor.lsua.edu/policies

Students may organize and join organizations to promote their common interest in accordance with the educational aims of the University. Membership shall be open to students without regard to race, creed, or national origin except for religious qualifications that may be required by organizations whose aims are primarily sectarian in nature. National Social Greek organizations are exempt from Title IX requirements only as they relate to their status as single sex organizations. These rights are reserved. However, it is the expectation of LSUA that social Greek programs are open to qualified individuals regardless of race, religion, national origin, or disability.

Students who wish to organize a new organization may begin the process by reviewing Policy Statement 239. The next step is to visit Student Services for a Petition for Official Recognition form. For additional information contact Student Services, 318-473-6545; or visit our offices in Student Support.
ORGANIZATIONS
Student Government Association – 318-473-6452
LSUA’s Student Government Association (SGA) is an organization of elected students who represent all LSUA students to the campus community. The SGA is not the same as a high school student council, where emphasis is often on planning social events. Your SGA is actively involved in improving and enhancing the quality of student life on campus. SGA members work closely with administrators, faculty, and staff, providing input that may influence administrative decisions directly affecting students. SGA is committed to addressing student concerns. Your SGA representatives are liaisons between students and faculty to ensure you have clear and unbiased representation on campus.

Every student enrolled in any LSUA course is a member of SGA. Election of officers occurs every spring; eligibility requirements are announced on the LSUA Webpage.

Become a Senator!
✓ Develop relationships with established members of the university community
✓ Express the opinions of your fellow students
✓ Cultivate leadership skills

In order to serve as senator, representing your classification (freshman, sophomore, etc.), you must have a cumulative GPA of 2.0, be at least a part-time LSUA student, and not on disciplinary, scholastic, or attendance probation. The SGA office has the petition forms.

SGA Mission Statement
SGA officers and senators will serve as liaison between the students, faculty, and administration, providing a strong student voice. SGA will weigh all perspectives through positive student leadership, and work for responsible and ethical outcomes for LSUA students.

Student Relief
Registered and active student organizations, and student events or activities sponsored by faculty are eligible to apply for Student Relief Funds through SGA. After presenting proof of fundraising, students and student organizations can apply for up to $1000 in an academic year. Salaries, scholarships, cash awards, personal expenses, deficit or loan payoffs, advisor expenses, departmental requests, and all other activities that fall outside of university regulations are not eligible.

Further, individual students, sponsored by a faculty member, may apply for up to $500 in funding during an academic year and must abide by the same guidelines as student organizations however, individual students do not have to show proof of fundraising.

Student Relief Application forms are available in the SGA office.

Applications should be received at least 14 days prior to the requested date for funds, and students must be prepared to present their requests to the SGA Board for approval. Each organization is limited to receiving only the amount approved by the SGA Board at the initial presentation meeting; if an event or organization goes over a proposed request for funds, SGA is not responsible for funding more than what was approved.

The SGA offices are in the Student Center, across the sidewalk from the student bookstore. The office number is 318-473-6452.

Athletic Teams' Mascot – The Generals

- The LSUA Generals’ Baseball and Softball teams, known as the LSUA Generals, earned the name from the significant history of Central Louisiana in the early years of World War II.
- Alexandria, Pineville and regional Central Louisiana were the homes to numerous Army training camps and facilities.
- In 1940 and 1941, the region was selected to host the "Louisiana Maneuvers" in which the planning and logistics for the United States' entry into the European Theater of World War II were undertaken.
- More than 350,000 soldiers undertook the multi-month mock battles and maneuvers that over the entire region from Alexandria west into Texas and north up to Shreveport.
- Leading these maneuvers, planning efforts and participating in this undertaking were several United States General Officers and several who would soon be promoted to the rank of General Officer, including Omar Bradley, Mark Clark, Dwight D. Eisenhower, Walter Krueger, Ben Lear, Lesley J. McNair and George Patton. General Dwight D. Eisenhower would eventually be named the Supreme Commander of all Western allied troops in the European Theater and later become President of the United States.

Volunteer Opportunities

Tree Campus USA

Because of the historic live oaks and other trees on campus, LSUA was designated as part of the Tree Campus USA program sponsored by the Arbor Day Foundation and Toyota. A campus must meet five standards in order to maintain that designation, three of which involve students.

Campus Beautification

The campus typically conducts Campus Beautification Days each year. Students are encouraged to volunteer for this activity along with administration, faculty, and staff.

The Advising Center, located in Student Support helps students make a successful transition to university life and to build a solid foundation for future success in college and beyond. In particular, academic advisors help students to:

1. select a course of study appropriate to their abilities and interests
2. understand and follow the requirements of their degree programs
3. assess their progress towards meeting those requirements
4. learn how to calculate their grade point average (GPA)

Once enrolled at LSUA, each student will be assigned an academic advisor. Transfer and re-entry students will be advised by faculty members within the discipline of the student's major. New freshmen and students, who have not yet decided on a major will, unless otherwise indicated, be advised by Advising Center personnel.

Students are required to see their assigned advisors before they schedule classes online. They should keep in mind that between semesters and during Summer semesters departmental advisors are generally less available than they are during Fall and Spring. Continuing students need to see their advisors during the Fall semester to find classes for the Spring semester and during the Spring semester to find classes for the Summer and Fall.

Library Services – James C. Bolton Library; 318-473-6441

Library Services is designed, equipped and organized to provide students with resources and services most helpful to their growth and development. The library and the services it offers are an integral part of the university experience, and provide opportunities for students to study, conduct research, develop specific interests, and acquire information literacy skills. Library Services includes the Archives and Special Collections division which collects university records and preserves primary sources that document Central Louisiana history. The archives are open to all researchers and scholars by appointment (phone 318-619-2960). The Library also houses a permanent art collection that features the works of regional artists of exceptional talent. The works are displayed throughout the building.
Help using the library - Individual help with research and the use of library resources is always available from a reference librarian. Be sure to ask for help whenever you need it. Opportunities for group instruction in the use of library resources and for students to become more "information literate" are advertised each semester. Group sessions centered on specific information needs can also be scheduled on request.

Individual and group study - Group conversations and group study should be limited to rooms that are provided for that purpose. Areas are set aside for those who require a quiet space. Areas of the library where a certain amount of noise and conversation are inevitable are the lobby and reference areas.

Off-campus use of online resources - Check with the Library reference desk for details about LSUA library resources that are available online. This information is also available at the Library webpage: http://www.lsua.edu/library

Circulation Rules - LSUA picture ID is required to check out books. Books circulate for thirty days. Books may be renewed unless requested by another patron or they are overdue. A "hold" may be placed on any book already checked out; instructors occasionally request that the library recall a book so that it may be placed on Reserve. Recalled books are due back immediately. The library operates on a "no fines" system. This system continues to operate because of the cooperation of each student.
Most reserve books are to be used only in the library. A few reserve books are allowed to circulate overnight or on weekends only and must be returned by 9:00 a.m. on the date due. Reference books and periodicals may only be used in the library.

Book replacement charges - LSUA library books are property of the State of Louisiana. Restitution will be required of the borrower for any library materials that are lost, mutilated or destroyed. Lost or destroyed book charges include the cost of replacement for a college library book as recorded in the current edition of The Bowker Annual and a service charge of $35 for each lost or destroyed book.
