INTRODUCTION

LSU OF ALEXANDRIA

LSU of Alexandria is a publicly supported institution that provides undergraduate-level college education to the citizens of Central Louisiana. The university is a unit of the LSU System and operates under the auspices of the Louisiana Board of Regents.

The LSUA logo is a registered trademark. This protects the logo from unauthorized manufacture, use, display, or sale of imitations. Therefore, the logo must be used for approved purposes only. It may not be modified beyond the supported versions contained in this manual. Using LSUA protected marks without permission from the institution or its authorized trademark licensing representative, IMG College Licensing, LLC (IMGCL), may be subject to criminal and/or civil penalties.

This Brand Standards Guide provides information on graphic standards and identity guidelines for the LSUA brand. For additional information on LSU Trademark Licensing and to view the LSUA licensee list, visit www.lsu.com or www.lsu.edu/administration/ofa/ (see: Trademark Licensing).

If you have any questions regarding the usage of the LSUA logo, please contact the LSUA Division of Strategic Communications at 318-427-0132.

For the most up-to-date version of the Brand Guidelines, please visit the Division of the Strategic Communications webpage on the official LSUA website (www.lsu.edu/strategic-communications).

WHY WE HAVE BRAND STANDARDS

LSUA is a respected and recognized institution in our community, state, and beyond. Maintaining the integrity and consistency of our institution's identity is crucial to protecting our image and growing the brand's value. The brand is more than just a name, logo, or the colors purple and gold. Strong branding supports our mission, values, and goals. Additionally, it helps deliver a unified and clear message, builds recognition and institutional loyalty, creates an emotional connection with our audiences, and upholds our credibility. Inconsistency threatens the brand's integrity, lessens the value of supporting brand elements, causes confusion, and promotes a negative perception of the institution.

This Brand Standards document must be followed to protect the institutions' patents, licenses, and trademarks as well as build consistency, recognition, and value in the LSUA name, image, and overall brand.

BRAND IDENTITY GUIDELINES

A consistent identity is a vital part of LSUA's relationship with the public. Simple things like fonts, imagery, and colors, when used consistently, make for a stronger brand and add to the public's ability to identify LSUA. Consistent, high-quality communications preserve the integrity of LSUA and maintain its stance as a trusted, confident, and progressive institution across future generations.

The business system sports a simple, streamlined design aimed at increasing the longevity and strength of the LSUA logo and the university's brand. This design continues the efforts of One LSU to bring all campuses closer together. The logo and brand must be used on all print, digital, written, or verbal mediums. Guidelines are subject to change without notice. For your protection and to maintain the maximum impact for LSUA, approvals are for a single-use unless otherwise specified.

MARKETING GOALS

Goals are specific, measurable, realistic, and time-bound metrics that should drive all communications and actions that support the university. Every campaign or strategic action must contribute to one of the established goals. Objectives are based on the current goals and details outlined in the LSUA Strategic Plan available online.

REPUTATION

Purpose: Increase the overall positive perception of LSUA

Objective: Improve awareness to growth-based endeavors, university achievements, and community outreach

LSUA is seen as a smaller, intimate campus with fewer course opportunities. In truth, the university holds the same level of programs as other popular institutes and has seen continuous growth and advancement over recent years. This goal is solely directed at shifting the outside perspectives and presenting LSUA as a prominent leader in the market. By increasing awareness to the university's pillars, opportunities, and growth, prospective students and influencers will know why LSUA should be their 'First Choice'

RECRUITMENT

Purpose: Increase lead generation for prospective students

Objective: Achieve an enrollment record of 5,000 students by the FY 2025-2026

Between the accredited academic departments, spread across five colleges, LSUA offers a wide range of degree programs on-campus and online that challenge and empower students. This goal should both capitalize on the top-performing offerings and increase awareness to new or critical programs. Actions that drive recruitment should highlight Student/Alumni experiences, unique career opportunities, and industry-standard qualities.

RETENTION

Purpose: Increase the quality of life and experiences of LSUA

Objective: Maintain or increase retention rates by FY 2024-2025

LSUA has maintained a small but welcoming environment for students to learn, thrive, and come together. As enrollment records and expectations rise, engagement will be even more critical. This goal represents the continued development, promotion, and analysis of actions that help students feel informed, engaged, and positive. Every experience has the potential to become an invaluable endorsement for LSUA.

SOCIAL MEDIA

LSUA graphic standards and brand guidelines extend to use on social media and the website as well. BRAND TAGLINE

“Within Reach. Without Limits.”

A powerful, but simple way to say LSUA is accessible and affordable, while playing up the current and future opportunities for students. It allows us to focus on the key reason current students are choosing LSUA — differentiating us from the competition — without giving the message that students are “settling” by choosing a local option. “Within Reach” can apply to both proximity and accessibility, depending on the student. “Without Limits” can apply to both the student and the university.

COMMON MISTAKES TO AVOID

Do not link social media accounts. For example, do not push your Facebook posts to Twitter; your text would be cut off due to differences in character limits between social media platforms.

Do not use the same copy on every platform. Adapt your copy based on platform, character restrictions, and target audience. Also be mindful of differing account/user names across platforms for tagging or other purposes.

Be sure your images are not blurry or too small. Image size/dimensions should be at least 1,000 pixels x 1,000 pixels at 72 pixels per inch.

Avoid using the same promotional image in consecutive posts. Audiences will begin to tune you out if you do not keep your content fresh. At the very least, alternate graphic images with similar copy. Keep the platform in mind; duplicative images would be obvious to users on Instagram because the repetitive content will be displayed in your grid.

VOICE & TONE

LSUA's voice is energetic, authentic, and approachable. It is meant to showcase the university's culture and history of creating local opportunities for Central Louisiana. We are not pretentious, sarcastic, or distasteful. We are proud of our rich history but even more thrilled for the future. Above all, we seek to empower our students, staff, faculty, and community through inclusive, thoughtful language throughout all communication.

ASSOCIATED PRESS (AP) STYLE GUIDE

LSUA follows Associated Press (AP) style guidelines. Since LSUA is an institution of higher learning, consistency and accuracy are important. All faculty, staff and students should use AP style in all official communication.

Key reminders:

Use LSUA on routine correspondence and for communication targeted locally (Central Louisiana). Use Louisiana State University of Alexandria for all other communication.

Never use “LSU-A.”

The word “university” is not capitalized when it stands alone.

Use figures for time except for noon and midnight.

Use lower case letters with periods to designate a.m. and p.m.

Avoid redundancies when listing times such as “10 a.m. this morning” and unnecessary ciphers (Use 1 p.m., not 1:00 p.m.).

When listing dates, use numbers without adding st, nd, rd or th.

Capitalize the names of months in all uses.

When a month is used with a specific date, abbreviate only the following months: Jan., Feb., Aug., Sept., Oct., Nov. and Dec.

Spell out the names of all months when using alone or with a year only.

Limit capitalization to titles used directly before an individual’s name. Lowercase titles that follow a name should be set off with commas. (Examples: Chancellor John Smith vs. John Smith, chancellor of LSU of Alexandria.)

Use an apostrophe in bachelor’s degree and master’s degree.

Capitalize and do not use possessive in Bachelor of Arts or Master of Science.

Use abbreviations after names, such as B.A., M.A., Ph.D.

When listing addresses, place the number before the building name. Do not abbreviate building names. Use correct building names (See LSUA website).

When discussing books, movies, articles, etc., list title in quotes—do not use italics. Capitalize the principal words, including prepositions and conjunctions of four or more letters. Capitalize an article—the, an, a—or words of fewer than four letters only if it is the first or last word in the title.

SECTION 06

APPENDIX

RGB

RGB (Red, Green, Blue) color mode is for anything that is computer-based design. This includes websites, apps, banner ads, and any other design created for electronic use.

CMYK

CMYK (Cyan, Magenta, Yellow, Black) color mode is used for print design. This includes logos, business cards, stationary, illustration, packaging, and any other designs used for print.

Vector

Vector images are made up of points, lines, and curves that can be infinitely scaled without any loss in image quality.

Raster

Raster images are made up of a set grid of dots called pixels, where each pixel is assigned a color value. Unlike a vector image, raster images are resolution dependent. When you change the size of a raster image, you shrink or stretch the pixels themselves, which can result in a significant loss of clarity and produce very blurry photos.

Lossless

Lossless image formats capture all of the data of your original file. Nothing from the original file, photo, or piece of art is lost—hence the term “lossless.” The file may still be compressed, but all lossless formats will be able to reconstruct your image to its original state.

Lossy

Lossy image formats approximate the appearance of your original image. For example, a lossy image might reduce the number of colors in your image or analyze the image for any unnecessary data. These clever technical tricks will typically reduce the file size, though they may reduce the quality of your image.

JPEG/JPG

JPEG is a lossy raster format that stands for Joint Photographic Experts Group, the technical team that developed it. This is one of the most widely used formats online, typically for photos, email graphics, and large web images like banner ads. JPEG images have a sliding scale of compression that decreases file size tremendously but increases artifacts or pixelation the more the image is compressed.

AI - Adobe Illustrator Document

Vector images are made up of points, lines, and curves that can be infinitely scaled without any loss in image quality.

EPS

EPS is an image format that stands for Encapsulated PostScript. Although it is used primarily as a vector format, an EPS file can include both vector and raster image data. Typically, an EPS file includes a single design element that can be used in a larger design.

PDF

PDF (Portable Document Format) is a file format used to display documents and graphics correctly, no matter the device, application, operating system or web browser. Because it is a near universal standard, PDF files are often the file format requested by printers to send a final design into production.

PNG

PNG is a lossless raster format that stands for Portable Network Graphics. Think of PNGs as the next-generation GIF. This format has built-in transparency, but can also display higher color depths, which translates into millions of colors. PNGs are a web standard and are quickly becoming one of the most common image formats used online.
