Note:

Student loans used during Fall 2024 and Spring 2025 will determine remaining Summer loan eligibility based on the above annual limits.

All students must be enrolled at least half time (6 hours) in Title IV eligible courses, be degree seeking, be academically eligible, and meet all other academic and financial aid requirements in order to receive a student loan disbursement.

Student loans will be disbursed into two disbursements. You must also be enrolled in at least half time at the time of the second disbursement- even if you have previously requested for loans.

All student must complete a Master Promissory Note and Direct loan entrance counseling to receive a student loan disbursement. You can complete these at studentaid.gov

Please review your Netpartner for interest rates and origination fees for student loans.

By signing below, the student has read and understands all information on this form and the Summer aid information at www.lsua.edu/financial-aid.

If the student has any questions it is their responsibility to contact the financial aid office at LSUA
