Resident Assistant Application 2013-2014

JOB DESCRIPTION:

Resident Assistants are students employed by Louisiana State University at Alexandria. They are responsible for supervising a group of 40-150 residents and they are actively involved in assisting these residents with personal and academic problems, implementing social and educational activities, developing a sense of community, helping maintain a comfortable living environment by providing excellent customer services, and performing various administrative and business related functions. The resident assistant is the focal point for the day-to-day operations of their living unit.

RAs must possess the personal characteristics of personal warmth, openness to new experiences, the ability to relate well with all types of people through patience, enthusiasm, critical thinking and the ability to react with emotional stability in stressful situations. They must also be able to evaluate situations objectively and promptly.

Qualifications:

1. Sophomore standing at LSU-Alexandria (freshmen considered on basis of an additional Letter of Recommendation, and previous work experience)
2. Minimum overall GPA of 2.5
3. Limit course load to no more than 18 hrs, and no less than 9 hrs.
4. Good discipline standing with LSU-Alexandria and The Oaks Residence Hall

Compensation:

All RAs receive the standard student worker pay of $7.25 per hour for up to 20 hours per week. In addition, we will provide a $100 per month rent concession.
