If you click on the “Maybe” tab & then look under “Courses from:” you will see a list of any/all courses that you’ve taken elsewhere that DO NOT currently have a transfer equivalency at LSUA.

At this point 1 of 2 steps will happen:

1. The “Maybe” courses shown above will appear on a list for a LSUA transcript evaluator to obtain equivalencies for.
2. You can click on the “Request Information” button and this window will pop up.

You can check off the areas you’d like more information on and/or type a personal message in the Custom Message box provided.

***You have now completed all of the necessary steps for “Will My Courses Transfer?” ***

Option #2: Find a replacement course.

The screenshot shows the Transferology interface. At the top, there are navigation links: "Will My Courses Transfer?" and "Find a Replacement Course". The user's name "Ashley" is in the top right. Below the navigation bar, there are tabs for "Courses (0)", "Matches (0)", and "Favorites (0)". The main heading is "Find a Replacement Course". Below this, there is a search area with a "School You Currently Attend" field and a "Start Over" button. There are also "Courses" and "Requirement Categories" tabs, and a "Department" dropdown menu. A "Search for Matches" button is visible. Handwritten annotations include: "Toggle" with an arrow pointing to the navigation bar; "Help" with an arrow pointing to a question mark icon; "Find schools that have matches to these courses!" with an arrow pointing to the "Search for Matches" button; and "Enter the school you currently attend & courses you want credit for" with an arrow pointing to the "School You Currently Attend" field.

If you are interested in seeing what courses you can take at other universities that will transfer back to LSUA with direct equivalencies, type "Louisiana State University-Alexandria" under "School You Currently Attend".

This screenshot shows the same Transferology interface, but with search results. The "School You Currently Attend" field is filled with "Louisiana State University-Alexandria". The "Department" dropdown is set to "MATH - MATHEMATICS". The "Courses" section shows a list of courses from Louisiana State University-Alexandria. The course "MATH1021" (College Algebra, Summer '18, 3 hours) is highlighted in green, and a red arrow points to the "+" button next to it. The "My Courses" column on the right now shows "Louisiana State University-Alexandria" and "MATH1021". Handwritten annotations include: "To select/add the course that you have taken, click on the '+'." with a red arrow pointing to the "+" button; and "Once you have successfully done that, the course should appear in the 'My Courses' column on the right side of the page." with a red arrow pointing to the "My Courses" column.
