Open/Old Business

- Elections for new senators, they will start in July 2021
  - Daniel Manuel, June Guillory and Donald Collins nominated for Category 3
  - Richard Robinson and Junetha Silas nominated for Category 4
- Minutes from 8/20/20 meeting are lost. Zoom recording expired.

New Business

- Anon Feedback from website 17 November 2020: how to handle and present to appropriate supervisor. Discussed the best course of action as a senate.
- Next meeting on December 17th- decided to cancel due to how busy our schedules will be that week before the holiday break.

Other Business/Senator Reports

- Adam Jonson- number of basketball games canceled or postponed- both men's and women's- working on reschedule dates in December. Working with the coliseum to see if we can play some games there to fit more people. Working on conference schedule for the Spring- waiting on the final word on that.

- Kaitlyn Nichols- updates from the first virtual Preview Day and the traditional one that occurred on November 14th. Then reminded everyone about the next virtual Preview Day on November 25th. Campus tours occurring Monday through Friday at 10 am and 2 pm and Saturdays at 2 pm. Everyone is a part of recruitment, so please let me or my team know about ways/ideas you have to help.
- Lakeisha Williams- working on Spring courses, other than that- no updates.
- Kristen Meche- Miller- Cashnet has now fixed their issues by implementing a new interface. Mrs. Pat is retiring at the end of December, but have officially made an offer to Zack McClendon.
- Titus Belgard- Things are going steady at the Library. Recent donation of several of the "Great Courses" on DVD and CD. Those are college level courses aimed at the general public- help spread the word to professors and department heads. The Library is continuing regular hours after Thanksgiving.
- Takeyra Wagner- IET is forcing MFA on certain departments due to sensitive material being shared. The search for the LSU President has been continuing and going well.

Motion to end the meeting: ended at 1:27 pm
