

“When Maw-Maw Got to Heaven”

I bet the first thing she asked the Lord
was if he was hungry.
I bet she served him tea cakes
with his milk and honey.

I bet she stays up late
to wash his clothes
and gets up extra early
to iron his robe.

I bet when Maw-Maw got to Heaven was the first day God himself had biscuits and gravy.
I bet he whispered under his breath,
“She’s such a sweet lady”.

I doubt there are any dirty dishes in Heaven
but I’m sure she’d offer to wash them anyway.
I bet the first thing she asked the Lord
was if he was hungry.
